CORRUPTION EVERYWHERE

So Mr. Gorman Vigorously Declares Postoffice Department to be.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—The Senate to-day began consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill, and it was a signal for the revival of the Democratic demand for an investigation into the charges of corruption in the Postoffice Department.

The debate was initiated by Mr. Gorman, who spoke for almost two hours in criticism of the course of the Republican party in the Senate, in refusing to make an investigation into the charges of corruption in the Postoffice Department. He urged that it was not now time to take steps to prevent further robbery and thievery in the department.

"It is bad," he went on, "that Congress is not doing speedily; that from one source a request amounting to orders has gone out; that it is inconvenient for one branch of government to have Congress on its hands; that if there's delay there are likely to be disgraceful inferences from what has already been developed. We have reached a time when there is much preaching of honesty and high-mindedness, but corruption bubbles out. It came like a fog, and has not yet lifted, and we cannot tell whether all the information is yet out."

DAMAGING DISCLOSURES.—Mr. Gorman referred to the charges made by the Postoffice Department, saying he believed they had been made for the purpose of diverting attention from the guilty ones who had gashed money from the treasury and abused their trusts. As for himself, he was of the opinion that members had not done more in the matter than their public duties required. Mr. Gorman called attention to the habit of criticizing men engaged in legislative work, and he concluded that this criticism grew out of a well directed effort to build up a one-man, czar-like government. So far, indeed, had this play progressed that legislation has come to be practically a farce, all important measures being dictated by the Executive. It was coming to be only an executive order was necessary to get an appropriation. The result is that Congress becomes a mere recording body.

"We are now told," he continued, "that having approved the plan of the executive, we must submit to the home because of the fear of the damaging disclosures. The fear is so great that we are not to sent away and not to be allowed to do anything."

He then referred to some of the pending legislation, and included in the list Mr. Foraker's bill for the amendment of the anti-trust law regarding transportation. He referred to Attorney-General Knox's statement regarding his bill, saying that it was not a departmental measure. "Think of it," said Mr. Gorman. "Notice is given to Congress that nothing should be done in the way of legislation without consulting the administration. The American people do not want one man control." Mr. Gorman contended. He hoped that such action would be taken as would prevent one man control in the next few years, who-ever might fill the White House.

Mr. Gorman closed with the declaration of the convert that the Postoffice Department was "thoroughly combed with corruption and inefficiency."

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow.

SOUTHERN PROPERTY.

Northern Man Strongly Impressed With Section's Rapid Advance

CHICAGO, March 30.—J. W. Gates returned to Virginia yesterday, after an absence of three months from New York, as he has purchased a home there and disposed of his Michigan Avenue residence in this city.

"I have been South, largely in Florida and Texas, all winter," said he. "The prosperity of the South just now is nothing short of wonderful."

"The greatest increase in the history of the world has been and is being planted. I saw cotton in Texas a few days ago almost ten inches above the ground. Barling accidents this year's crop will be greatly in mind. The two reasons—the very high prices of the last year and the widespread circulation of money throughout the Southern States."

GOOD FIRE.

Mock Trial at the Jefferson Club Was a Great Success.

Members of the Jefferson Club enjoyed one of the most unique entertainments they have ever presented. The idea was "Bridget Gingling in Oil Lamp" but the scheme was a mock trial called "Cloverleaf" vs. Toothpicks, the plaintiff being a woman, and the good fellows with Mr. Charles Milliner, a judge. The show was good and they haven't finished talking about it yet.

should remain on the bench until after the election, or, at least, until he had been voted a clean bill of health by this Congress.

It is stated on authority today that Judge Swinye will resign after the House refuses to censure his impeachment. Indeed, it is said that the understanding has been reached that he shall be vindicated by the House, despite the report of the committee which recommended his impeachment, and that he shall then quit the bench.

The whole affair is one of the most glaring pieces of whitewash Congress has perpetrated in its history; that, and its constant and persistent refusal to investigate the corruption in the Postoffice Department.

The club is noted for its ensemble work and its perfect blending and shading, as well as for the artistic character of its singing.
